A Fatal Explosion

DUNKIRK, O, July 7—A horrible accident occurred near here yesterday afternoon the boiler of a steam thresher exploding and killing five persons and seriously wounding four The scene beggared description. The dead and injured were scattered about the place and the air was filled with the groans of the wounded and their frantic friends Richard Case was instantly killed His head was blown a distance of 100 yards from where his body lay, and his heart was literally torn out and found at some distance from the trunk Amsey Harden and Geo Pisle were instantly killed Wm Frederick died an hour after the accident Rudy Thrush cannot recover John McVetty and A M Bower were slightly injured The cause of the explosion is unknown The boiler had never been used before.

Harvard Wins the Fresh Crew Race over Columbia.

NEW LONDON, July 7—A two mile freshman race between eight oared crews from Harvard and Columbia colleges rowed over the Thames course to day. The race was won by Harvard in 11 minutes and 32 seconds. Columbia's time, 11 minutes and 37 seconds. The race was exceedingly pretty and hotly contested throughout Harvard won the toss and chose the west side of the course. The crews were started by Trimbly captain of the Harvard University crew at 8 minutes past 12 Harvard got the lead of Columbia at the start and both crews got away in good style rowing 38 strokes to the minute. They swung along bow and bow until the first half mile buoy was reached, when Columbia forged a half length ahead. This lead was overcome by Harvard before the end of the first mile At the first mile buoy Harvard spurted to 40 strokes and got a slight lead which was gradually increased to a length and a quarter at the finish

Chicago goes Above a Half Million.

CHICAGO July 7—The census superintendent reports the total for this city to be 502,[illegible] The only change in this total will be made by possible discoveries of errors in the footing of enumerators and bureau officials and probably will not make a difference of over a hundred either way.

BUSINESS STATEMENT.

Comment by the "N. Y. Public" on the Business of the Country for the Last Half Year.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

NEW YORK, July 7—The Public will to-morrow omit its usual weekly table of clearing house transactions and give instead those of the months of June and the half year It seems that the business of the first half year of 1880 was nearly one half larger than that of the first half of 1879 Putting aside the transactions at New York, which may be indifferently interpreted, the exchanges at all the other clearing houses show an increase of nearly one third in comparison with those of the corresponding months of last year. The fact is, that the business of New York has been exceptionally enlarged during the past year by the unprecedented increase of imports from foreign lands, by the circumstances which have caused extraordinary shifts of grain by lake and canal, and by a remarkable extension of terminal facilities Hence not more than 10 per cent represents that increase of exchanges in New York which is due to greater activity in stock speculation, while near 40 per cent represents the increase in New York due to other causes St Louis and Chicago have been doing better during the month than during the half year, but it may be supposed that this is the cause of extraordinary improvement in crops since June 1 Boston and Philadelphia have been doing worse, and this may also be attributed to a large movement of grain toward New York San Francisco is the only city which shows decline in business, and the democrats who have just abolished Kearney, seem to know why The increase at all other cities has been greater than the increase in the average prices since the first half of 1879 People have sold enormously especially of exportable products, but people have bought enormously, especially of products of American factories, or the proportion of increase at the manufacturing cities would not have been as large as it is The transactions for the half year in short show a very encouraging increase and remarkable activity of business, and exchanges for the month of June cast but little shadow over the picture The movement during the last month has been relatively smaller than for the half year and yet it has been so large, the decline in prices considered, as to justify most encouraging anticipations for the future

THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS

Confession that a Democratic Record in their States Rights' War is a Fatal Disqualification—A Stratagem to Mask Democratic Designs

[From the Cincinnati Gazette.]

"The democratic party has nominated for the presidency a distinguished soldier of the regular army in the great war against secession The representative men of the confederate army and of the solid south have acknowledged that their candidate for the suffrages of this nation must have the qualification of fidelity to the national union The great democratic party has confessed that a democratic record in their states rights war is a fatal disqualification for a national candidate The statesmen of the democratic party, its senators, representatives, jurists, orators and leaders in state affairs, have humbly stood back before the one sole qualification of a professional soldier's loyalty to the national flag This act of the democratic national convention is—

A SPLENDID TRIBUTE TO THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

Nothing which this party has been wont to ascribe to its grand history has surpassed this voluntary testimonial by the democratic party It has declared by its acts that a democratic record is a fatal disqualification to any candidate for the suffrages of the nation, and that a record of loyalty to the nation against the democratic secession is alone a sufficient qualification, and without this all the qualifications of statesmanship are as nothing The convention could not pay a higher tribute to the republican party than it has done in the nomination of this distinguished soldier of the union The representatives of the brave confederate army and the solid south could not more handsomely acknowledge

THE WRONGFULNESS OF THEIR SECESSION

[illegible] submission under defeat than they have done by their solid support of this national soldier The republican party had never more cause to exult in its grand war history than when now fifteen years after the war has ended, the democratic convention has made loyalty to the nation in that war the supreme and sole consideration in naming a candidate for president The two or three [illegible] statesmen [illegible] the northern democrat [illegible] the political [illegible] that even professional [illegible] in the national army was the sine qua non [illegible] before which [illegible] must [illegible] stand back And at length after fifteen years [illegible] the representatives of the [illegible] army have renewed their allegiance to the nation [illegible] by solidly making service in the army which conquered their rebellion the sole qualification for the chief magistrate So complete did they make this submission that they would not ask even the nomination of vice president, although the union of the blue and the gray in Hancock and Hampton was an attractive idea but [illegible] even this small share might give a slight southern taint to it

[illegible] OF A NORTHERN DEMOCRAT,

And [illegible] by the single idea they [illegible] We heed not the ready assertion that the nomination of Hancock by the confederate leaders is only a stratagem to mask their designs while they get possession of the government Suppose this to be still the [illegible] is the same, [illegible] a taint [illegible] that [illegible] the war [illegible]

THE INDISPENSABLE QUALIFICATION

Which [illegible] the credentials [illegible]

This nomination swells the bosom of every republican with pride in that history of fidelity to country which has given it an ascendancy to be the supreme merit In another [illegible] can be said that General Hancock brought up a soldier, without political ideas will be used only as clay to the potter in the hands of the political leaders Still his democratic contest [illegible] that fidelity to the nation is the supreme sentiment and sympathy with secession a perpetual proscription is none the less a testimony to the patriotism and grandeur of the course of the republican party and none the less a confession that to have borne a part in their story of the democratic party is to be unworthy the suffrages of the nation

OREGON STATE FAIR.

Twentieth Annual Exhibition of the Oregon State Agricultural Society

SEVENTH DAY

Attendance Falling Off but Still Good—A Visit to Machinery Hall—A Stroll about the Swine Pens—Election of Officers, the Contest between the Radical and Conservative Horsemen—Details of the Art Department—Fine Exhibit of Grains

This morning like yesterday dawned cloudy but pleasant and promised a fair cool day The crowd in the grounds has perceptibly diminished but quite a multitude still remains and there is yet a good deal of life and activity about the place but soon the desertion will begin and where lately the thronged thousands were gathered only hundreds and then none will be seen

The several committees and judges have finished up their work and tied on the blue and red ribbons filling some hearts with satisfaction and a good many others with disappointment These committees have no easy task but most of them go at the business with an honest purpose and the exhibitors who feel chagrined at the result of their efforts to win a premium ought to consider that each person is apt to regard his own work on his own article more favorably than an impartial mind Every man is prejudiced in his own favor when he considers that he has something worthy of a premium.

Election of Officers

As we write the annual election of officers is in progress at the society's office on the grounds There is no contest except in the selection of directors and the result will doubtless show the re-election of W Wilkins as president, J F Miller and C P Burkhardt as vice presidents E M Waite as secretary, and Ladd & Bush as treasurer Each county in the state is entitled to one member of the board of directors and in Wasco, Columbia Benton Lane Washington Clackamas Marion, Multnomah and Polk each, there are two or more candidates The issue is between those who are in favor of giving the turf more prominence as a feature of the fair or at least in supporting the race course liberally and those who are more conservative on that point There is a good deal of complaint even now, about the alleged neglect of other interests that the racing may be kept up but every one who has attended the Oregon fairs and observed knows that they constitute the greatest attraction here and we believe as a matter of fact the horsemen do more in proportion to the benefit they get than any other class of exhibitors to support the fair They complain less than others and are shown as few favors We speak this word for them because we are satisfied that without their aid the Oregon state fairs would soon fail entirely Other interests should of course, be properly cared for and encouraged but four fifths of the money which has been put in circulation here this year outside of the gate receipts has come out of the pockets of the horsemen

Agricultural Implements and Machinery

The exhibit in this department is larger than usual, and the competition is watched with a good deal of interest. Four or five engines are constantly in motion running different pieces of machinery. The largest exhibitor in this department is the extensive house of J. I Case & Co of Racine Wisconsin who display the very latest improved threshers, separators, reapers, mowers, rakes, plows, etc In no respect has theirs been excelled by any similar exhibitor on this ground and we predict that the firm will reap a large reward in the way of increased trade from their exhibition judging by the number of farmers and others who are constantly examining their machinery, and from the numerous words of commendation thereof which are heard

Robinson's machine works exhibit an engine which is simple in construction and easily and conveniently applied

Cooper Wheadon & Co of Salem, show an improved cultivator, and Charles Washner, a home made wagon, which he calls the "Webfoot" It is well built, of the best material and looks as if it would stand a tremendous load and last for an age

The agents of the Studebaker and Schuttler wagons have samples of these excellent vehicles on exhibition

C H Dodd & Co. show a Pitts power and other machinery The Canton thresher, made by Aultman & Co of Canton, Illinois, arrived too late to be entered for a premium, but Mr Scott, manager for Dodd & Co, put it in operation and on exhibition just the same

E J Northup has the Westinghouse engine and thresher in good running order, and his display is also much admired by the agricultural people

Messrs Wait & Brown, of Salem, also exhibit a fine lot of machinery and agricultural implements

Among those exhibiting wagons buggies carriages etc are Messrs Kelly & Underwood and Wm. England of Salem Their displays consist of one and two horse carriages, express wagons and buggies They are regarded by good judges to equal in construction, durability and finish to the best imported work

Daniel Best's, the Ho[illegible] man and the Western grain separators wonderful improvements all of them on the old method of cleaning grain help to make up the very good display which is to be found in and around machinery hall or the old pavilion

Swine

The exhibition of swine is confined to three owners, the principal one being Mr John West of Salem who shows over sixty hogs of all ages and sizes His finest ones are Poland Chinas Berkshires and Chester Whites. He also has some excellent grades, and makes altogether the finest display ever made on the grounds by a single exhibitor in this line

R S Carey of Salem shows some very fine Berkshire, and another lot is shown by some one whose name we have been unable to obtain

The Races.

In the trot for $10 class the following animals were entered, King Faro b g, entered by L B Lindsey Western Chief, b s by A A Bank, Florence E s m by Pete Emerson The favorites were the two latter each having their friends from Portland and Salem who predominated The mare took the lead and kept it throughout the Chief breaking badly on the start regaining taking second place and keeping close behind the mare but having no show to close the gap Florence E took the heat in 2:45½, Western Chief 2d Faro distanced

The start was a good one on the second heat, but the mare broke badly falling far behind, getting down to her work before the half mile pole was reached and gradually gained on the horse closing in on him inside the distance pole, where the horse broke giving the mare temporary lead but which the horse regained in the last 20 yards, crossing as many thought by a half neck in the lead The judges however gave the heat to the mare. Time 2:50 Lindsey drove the Chief in this heat but in the next Bank took the reins again The Chief in this broke in the first turn losing ground and again near the half mile pole but drew up as they came in on the finish almost closing in on the mare at the wire which the latter crossed a neck in the lead The heat and race was given to Florence E time 2:45½ Those who were directly under the wire at the close of the second heat declared the Chief entitled to the heat having half a neck to the front.

In the trot of one mile dash for supremacy in Oregon bred stallions Western Chief b s was entered by A A Bank and Milton b s, by Redmond & Smith The latter held the lead through the break of the Chief and kept it until almost the ending, when the Portland horse drew ahead winning in 2:50½ making his first public record and a most satisfactory one to his friends in Portland He is of Pathfinder stock

We view the art department The beauty of this is marred in some degree by the display of cheap chromos clumsily framed in shells A blue ribbon is attached to some of them probably out of pity for the execrable taste of the exhibitor Mr Blenheim shows six landscape paintings in oil, and takes first premium for largest and best display in that line J I Barhart exhibits a marine painting not taking first premium W H L[illegible] shows a landscape a mountain in the background with trees water and foliage and even a bird all which [illegible] ingeniously wrought A blue ribbon is attached to this piece, and a red ribbon to a piece in the same work by Mrs [illegible] Leninger Miss Anna Benner takes the first premium for portrait painting in oil the picture shown being quite creditable to an amateur In shell wax hair and zephyr work the entries are numerous and some of them quite pretty We notice especially two landscapes composed entirely of hair [illegible] from the heads of ninety pioneers of Oregon being brought [illegible] for that purpose The work is done by Mrs [illegible] J Ross [illegible] Mrs J W Gardiner exhibits [illegible] achromatic drawing a winter [illegible] scene of a wreck which tells its own story and show to advantage the artist's [illegible] Mrs E M Waite enters 40 of paintings for largest and best display taking first premium Miss Mary Bridges though an amateur makes a fine display of six pieces evincing an [illegible] which will yet redound to her own advantage and the credit of her native state [illegible] No collection of this kind in Oregon [illegible] at Mt Hood [illegible] photography [illegible] second premium [illegible] is extremely meagre compared to other years and shows the paucity of the competition of Portland artists Miss Henrietta [illegible] showing [illegible] that attest wonderful study and skill The art department throughout though by no means full was much better represented than the promise of the first few days indicated and the superintendent has made the most of the means at his disposal in tasteful arrangement

In upholstered goods a few fine exhibits are made Mrs E M Waite shows a chair in worsted embroidery upholstered by F J Babcock that takes first premium An easy chair with embroidered haircloth seat and back shown by the latter is also decorated with blue Miss Lizzie [illegible] shows a [illegible] ottoman in worsted and Miss [illegible] a piano stool foot rest and ottoman in [illegible] worked embroidery on haircloth Several pieces upholstered in silk patchwork have done entry to so many state fairs as to look quite venerable and deserve to be retired on their honors.

The exhibit in grain is quite up to the usual standard. J D Prettyman exhibits without [illegible] a new rye hybrid and [illegible] the white Russian [illegible] Centennial rye The entries are finely prepared for exhibit and attract universal attention among farmers H [illegible] also enters [illegible] specimens of wheat and [illegible] taking two first and one second premium [illegible] Barkhart enters four varieties of wheat and one each of rye, flax seed buckwheat orchard grass and timothy seed taking a goodly share of first premiums Geo Belshaw enters seven varieties of wheat and takes several premiums Jame Hamilton takes first premium on oats and corn John Wilson also shows a fine specimen of oats and H K Riddell takes three first premiums on wheat and oats These grains are all plump [illegible] and speak well for the state and her agriculturists

The Oregon Kidney Tea prepared by Dr Henley and entered as the product of Oregon [illegible] in medicinal [illegible] comes off victorious flying a blue ribbon and receiving the society's gold medal Its value as a medicine has already been tested and the present triumph is but another victory

Dr Wm Pfunder compounder and proprietor of Oregon Blood Purifier and [illegible] Fever and Ague Remedy receives two first premiums as an additional test of the efficacy and popularity of these celebrated Oregon remedies The proprietor already has a medal granted by the society [illegible] these medicines in 1878 and 1879 respectively

J W Crawford of Salem to whose fine display of stoves and tinware we have but referred takes first premium on stoves of Oregon manufacture the Wide West made in Portland wearing the blue He also takes first premium on best display of tinware, his exhibit in this line being full

A wonderful specimen of fine casting is exhibited in this connection being the Declaration of Independence accurately stamped in finely tempered and highly polished metal every letter of which is readily brought out by the aid of a glass

In summing up we view the display in the pavilion in mid summer as greatly superior in some important details to that made in the fall but in other respects fully equal The society deserves credit for persistent effort in the face of obstacles that would have daunted less determined men and under all the circumstances have reasons to be satisfied with their venture

Miscellaneous

An accident which came near proving fatal attended the attempted balloon ascension last evening, the woman who held on to the trapeze bar catching in the guy ropes in the sudden uprising of the balloon After being whirled swiftly round and round for a few seconds the bar broke loose from its fastenings and she was hurled to the ground falling heavily, a distance of some thirty feet The shock rendered her unconscious for some hours, but beyond this no serious injury was sustained The balloon speedily collapsed and in a few minutes came down

Total receipts of the fair will approximate $20,000

The jaded performers in the sawdust arena finished their weary tramp this morning Very few of the better class of visitors at the fair have contributed to the support of these tramps.

The usual growl of discomfited exhibitors who go home minus the blue ribbons that they are morally certain belonged of right to them also upon the ear of hard worked committees

The baby show advertised to come off on the ground at 2 P M, attracted a large crowd The affair was under the management of E O Norton who has distinguished himself in like contests heretofore The judges appointed were Prof Condon L Samuel, Mrs B D Prettyman Miss Susan Jefferson and Mrs A J Gilbert There were eleven entries seven boys and four girls After due deliberation the judges decided Little [illegible] of Turner, entitled to the prize offered by Dr Pfunder for the handsomest girl baby and Clyde W Riddel of Tangent to that offered by J W Weatherford for the handsomest boy baby The competitors were all under two years of age Mrs Duniway presented the prizes with a happy speech and amid much merriment

In our report on the cattle we gave Col Nesmith as the owner of the Jersey bull, cow and twin calves. These cattle which thousands have seen and admired during the fair belong to Mr A C Cunningham of East Portland

The Bandmann troupe had rather small houses until last night when they had a very full house Bandmann and Miss Beaudet with the efficient support furnish a very fine entertainment In fact the best we have had at the fair for years and ought to have been more liberally patronized

The entries for to morrow in the [illegible] mile race running are Robert [illegible] Caddy E, Glenn Dudley Frank Hastings Hollie Miller A fine match and great interest is felt in the result.

E J Northup & Co have the Westinghouse separator and Engine on exhibition The Separator is said to be a dark horse among the other candidates and Northrup thinks would have had the blue ribbon if the high water had not detained its delivery and consequent entry till too late for competition The engine is the first of the kind ever in the state and was the object of much favorable comment on account of its light weight combined with strength, and economy of fuel Steam was raised in sixteen minutes from the time the fire was made, and in twenty minutes the engine was ready for work

This is sufficient evidence of the value of the bed

THE FOURTH AT SCHOLL'S FERRY.

An Insult by an Unrepentant Rebel

SCHOLL'S FERRY, July 6, 1880.

To THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

A picnic celebration was held at this place yesterday in honor of the 104th anniversary of American independence The usual programme was gone through with, as follows Reading [illegible] oration by Mr B H Thomas [illegible] In the afternoon there was one foot racing sack racing wheelbarrow racing ladies' [illegible] racing &c In the evening there was an exhibition of fireworks the festivities winding up with a grand ball given by W H McKeran in his new hall recently built at this place

Everything passed off agreeably except the oration if such it could be called A portion of it was passable but the winding up was simply a [illegible] of State rights "bloated bondholders nigger equality," and a host of other exploded ideas which were buried years ago beneath the ruins of a defunct confederacy [illegible] held [illegible] as the wisest, ablest, most brilliant man who has graced the halls of congress since '66 The orator(?) boldly flaunted a southern paper before the audience and told them they ought to read a [illegible] paper [illegible] there they would get the truth It is a burning shame that a man who took up arms to destroy this government and who was subjugated by the [illegible] should thus take the advantage of such an occasion to insult the [illegible] and patriotism of this day and age by such an outrageous condition of southern [illegible] upon the nation's birthday! [illegible] and that he boldly says, if the south should renew the effort for independence at any time that he will assist them to the extent of his ability The less we hear from [illegible] on the fourth or at any other time the better SPECTATOR

CREDIT MOBILIER.

Schuyler Colfax's Solemn Declaration of the Falsity of Ames' Testimony

Mr Schuyler Colfax whose name has been brought into prominence in the revival of the Credit Mobilier scandal caused by Gen Garfield's nomination has addressed a letter on this subject to the New York Herald. After reviewing at length the evidence—or lack of evidence—offered against him in the congressional investigation, Mr Colfax says

Mr Ames is dead, and grievously as he wronged me I hope that it was the confusion and excitement of his mind with consequent impairment of memory at the time and his over anxiety to justify himself that caused him to [illegible] as he did But as you have brought me into this discussion I repeat again as I did seven years ago that, as I hope for God's favor at the judgment day, I never received a dollar from Mr Ames in money or check, that I abandoned totally and at the loss of what I had paid on it, and four years before there was a breath of scandal, an inchoate contract for twenty shares of this stock that I never held nor owned therefore any stock in it and that I never saw the check payable to S C or bearer till the very week in 1873 on which he swore that he had paid it to me as a dividend in June, 1808

THURSDAY MORNING JULY 8 1880

BRADLAUGH'S CASE

Readers of the English news as reported through our telegraphic dispatches have doubtless given attention to the facts as presented in the case of Bradlaugh a member of the house of commons against whom a vote of expulsion was recently carried because of his religious or anti religious opinions There was no question as to the legality of his election No crime of any kind stains his record Indeed he is known as a man of singularly pure and conscientious life and this fact has been an additional offense to his enemies. It was his character stic conscientiousness that got him into trouble in the present case. He might as the average unbeliever or infidel would have done and does do in all the legislative bodies in the world—for in all of them he is found—taken the necessary oath with a gulp and said nothing about it But not believing in the God by whom he was required to swear he said so declared that he had scruples about indulging in what he called the mummery of swearing by a God he didn t believe existed and asked to be allowed to make the simple affirmation of the Quaker This being denied he took his case back to his constituents and left it to them whether he should not, rather than leave them unrepresented in parliament submit to the oath and take it They emphatically answered him "yes go and swear" Feeling in his conscience thus purged of insincerity he presented himself to take the oath It was then that a resolution forbidding him either to take the oath or swear was offered and carried, which in effect was expulsion It was declared that as he was an atheist or infidel he was unfit to hold a seat in the house Subsequently however, on motion of Mr Gladstone a resolution was passed permitting him to affirm So he now occupies his seat in the house but a new attack is being made upon him based on the ground that as he was expelled by the former vote he has now no right to a seat and therefore is subject to arrest and punishment for assuming to sit in the house and voting in that body This, perhaps, will not give him any great degree of trouble, since as the house has receded from its first position and resolved to seat him, it will be fully able to protect one of its own members from serious annoyance The interest of the case lies in its relations to phases of religious sentiment and belief and in the assumption implied in the proceedings against Bradlaugh, that control may be exercised over matters of conscience beyond the point which the tolerant sentiments of the age would justify or approve In the action of the house there was, of course, a party trick arising from a desire to obtain a partisan advantage. It cannot be supposed that many of the members who voted for the expulsion were really troubled to any extent about the religious sentiments of the recusant but the conservatives saw an opportunity to annoy their political opponents and a sufficient number of the liberals voted with them through religious zeal, to make a majority But under the personal influence of Gladstone the latter were won back, and now this question of belief in the common idea of the personality of God may almost be said to have become a party question in the house of commons Mistaken religious zeal and an excess of party spirit have made this case a far more important one than there was any occasion for Had Bradlaugh been permitted simply to affirm and take his seat, nothing would have been thought or said about it But through the mistaken course which has been pursued, both the right of conscience and the right of a member of the house of commons to a seat to which he has been lawfully elected have to be affirmed at the seeming expense of an important religious belief Many will reason in this way Charles Bradlaugh having denied the existence of a God, the house refused him his seat because he was an unbeliever or atheist nevertheless the house was obliged to recede and give him his seat and as he has made his point the house therefore is committed to his negation of the divine personality and existence And some doubtless will go further and say that the house of commons in sustaining Bradlaugh has decided that there is no God Of course the question was really one of a very different kind It was just this Has a legislature a right to throw out its members because it does not like their sentiments, religious social or political? To such a question here could be but one answer Religion or morality had nothing to do with the matter The truth is the conservative politicians saw their opportunity in the technicalities of Bradlaugh s case and set out to make the most of it in order to worry their opponents Had the decision been sustained all that it would be necessary henceforth for a majority to do when it has decided to get rid of some prominent and troublesome member of the opposition would be to hunt back in his letters and speeches for some unorthodox expression or phrase and then vote to expel him This if carried out, would ere long expel the Jew, the Unitarian, or the dissenter of any kind Had the house adhered to its first vote for the expulsion of Bradlaugh it would have enacted in the broad light of the nineteenth century the religious test and given room to apply it with a strictness which even Cromwell s Puritans in the seventeenth century would have shrunk from Representative government could not stand on such a principle, and the house could not possibly do otherwise than recede

THE SCHEME IN INDIANA

The people of Indiana have long desired to make certain necessary changes in the constitution of their state. But to effect changes of this nature a long period is usually required. Framers of constitutions have been anxious to make alterations difficult and properly so. Otherwise constitutions would be changed to meet every new partisan object But in Indiana there was general and strong desire to make certain changes in the organic law These changes were by no means of partisan character Among them was a provision abolishing elections in the month of October and fixing the time of holding all state elections in November This would make them coincident in time with presidential elections would save the annoyance and expense of holding two elections with in three weeks of each other and would moreover remove a fruitful source of manipulation and corruption through which the will of the people is thwarted every four years for the sake of the effect of a majority in October on the more important election in November The amendments carrying this and other proposed reforms were as the telegraph announced two or three weeks ago declared void by the supreme court of the state though they had been [illegible] by average majorities of [illegible] twenty [illegible] The decision of the court was [illegible] without justification on legal grounds and was rendered purely for partisan purposes One object was to help Hendricks at Cincinnati by making it appear necessary that Indiana should be carried in October, and that he was the only man who could surely carry it. Another object was to relegate Indiana to the position of an October state to be colonized from Kentucky as heretofore, corrupted with money and carried for the party The following is from the Indianapolis News

A reporter of the News says that while he was in the supreme court library this morning talking with James H Rice secretary of the state central committee and two other democrats, Judge Worden entered the room and addressing Rice said Well Jim I guess you had better telegraph to the boys at Cincinnati that we overthrew the amendments this morning by a vote of 3 to 2. They will be glad to know about it As soon as Rice could recover from the sensation, continues the reporter he quickly shut up the judge with the information that there was a reporter present The judge said no more in regard to the case but turning immediately the reporter asked Are you on the Sentinel? No sir I m not on the Sentinel but on the News and have just been looking after the case. The answer was very unpleasant to the entire party and the News man was immediately and earnestly solicited to say nothing about the decision.

This putting back of Indiana to the status of an October state was necessary to give Hendricks the ghost of a chance But there was still another partisan purpose to be served by judicial nullification of the amendments One of the amendments defines a certain residence for voters and would thus have put an end to the practice of importing voters into Indiana from other states, which has been a democratic habit for years and has repeatedly enabled them to carry the state This decision is one of the features of the unscrupulous campaign which is to be made this year to enable the democratic party to seize the power it has hitherto so often clutched at in vain

The published statement of expenditures and receipts of the state penitentiary for the last quarter furnish an exhibit which shows that the economical management of the present administration is a continuous and consistent thing Following other exhibits heretofore made, it proves that what the present superintendent has undertaken to do in the direction of retrenchment is no mere spurt of economy soon to cease as like efforts often do We may reasonably entertain the hope that under a term of first rate business management an economical system of carrying on the prison will be so firmly established that it will be more difficult hereafter to fall back upon the old expensive ways or difficult at least to reconcile the people to a return to loose and extravagant methods It is certain that for the past two years the prison has cost the taxpayers much less than during any similar period taking into account the number of prisoners, which was never before so large

What sight could be more touching than to see the foremost of the peace shrieking—we-never-vote-a-man-or-dollar-for-the-prosecution-of-the-war party marching shoulder to shoulder after Gen Hancock, and exclaiming, as an organ in Oregon did some days ago that the thunder of Hancock s guns now mean victory just as they did at Gettysburg! Gen Hancock fought for the union and now he is the nominee of the party that fought against that union The whirligig of time shows many changes The country at this time is in no deadly peril When it was the great mass of the democracy would have preferred to hang a union general to voting for him.

There seems to be no doubt that Senator Blaine will visit the Pacific states on a campaigning tour He has been invited by the state republican committee of California, and will come unless prevented by some unforeseen event. An invitation from the state republican committee of Oregon should be and no doubt will be extended to him to visit this state He is known to have declared repeatedly his desire to visit Oregon Should he come he will get a reception which will surpass everything in that line ever before witnessed here.

In the iron districts of the eastern states there has been almost a complete collapse of "the iron boom" so noticeable six months ago Nearly all forms of the metal have declined from twenty five to forty per cent. Coal and coke have followed the same downward way In many places the mines and furnaces are quite closed or working at less than half their capacity The folly of putting up prices so high has speedily demonstrated itself But it is a good sign to witness the return to natural prices

The party which in 1864 pronounced the war a failure and rejoiced when the national arms met with defeat, now seeks to gain favor through the nomination of one of Lincoln's hirelings for the presidency The south and those who sympathised with it join heartily in his support. But perhaps a majority of the people will prefer to trust a little longer the party which does not feel obliged to hide its record rather than one formed largely of the element which fought four years to destroy American nationality.

The census shows that the number of Chinese in San Francisco has been much exaggerated, the actual count making only about 20,000 Throughout California generally the number of Chinese is found to be considerably less than hitherto reported or supposed. Probably the entire number will be less than 50,000

The French are about to build a ship canal from Bordeaux to Narbonne at a cost of 75,000 000 francs It is singular to observe how the French take the lead in all vast engineering operations

"A fraternal union of states" is the democratic cry, but the fraternal union they want is one that would make the solid south the ruling power of the country

DRY GOODS, CLOTHING.

In France, England, Germany, and in the Eastern states, armies of White people of both sexes are employed in designing coloring, measuring dressing, cutting, sewing etc , etc, and in the States of California and Oregon most all of this kind of labor is performed by Chinamen; but I make it my business to keep my store clear from this China made trash Workingmen of this city and all over Oregon to YOU I make it known, that there is not a single dollar's worth of Goods in my Store that have ever been handled by a Chinaman; and I wish it publicly understood, without FEAR or FAVOR, that I shall at all times stock my Store with only such Goods as are made by WHITE labor, and I ask your patronage

CITY

DEATH OF GEO H CLARKE—The many friends of Mr George H Clarke were painfully shocked yesterday on hearing the announcement that he had passed away from earthly scenes. Although Mr Clarke had been quite ill for nearly a week but few comparatively knew of it and hence the great surprise experienced on hearing of his death. About a week ago Mr Clarke while moving into his new house contracted a severe cold. The cold settled in one side and brought on a very severe attack of pleurisy. Notwithstanding constant and skillful medical attendance he continued to grow worse until death released him from pain yesterday morning at 7.30 o clock. Mr Clarke was in the forty third year of his age. He was a native of Vermont. About sixteen years ago deceased came to Portland and from that time up to within a year past had been engaged in the dry goods business. He was for many years associated in business with Messrs W Cook and M W Henderson under the old and familiar firm name of Clarke Henderson & Cooke. Several years ago Mr Cooke retired from the firm and the business was continued under the name of Clarke & Henderson. About a year ago Mr Clarke retired from business. The deceased was a very social convivial gentleman a man of excellent business qualifications and upright and honorable in his dealings with his fellowmen. He was a member of Vigilance Hook and Ladder Company No 1. Yesterday the flags were displayed at half mast over the different engine houses in respect to the memory of the departed. A loving and devoted wife and several children mourn the loss of a husband and father. The funeral will take place to day at 10 o clock A M from the residence of the family corner of West Park and Jackson streets.

REGULAR QUARTERLY MEETING—Portland Seaman s Friend Society held its first regular quarterly meeting for the year 1880-1, at the parlors of Messrs Ladds' bank in this city at 4 P M yesterday President H W Corbett in the chair. Minutes of the last meeting were read by Mr E. Quackenbush secretary, and approved. The action of the committee to print the report of the society's labors since its organization was by vote approved and the committee was discharged. On motion it was voted to authorize Chaplain Stubbs to present the needs of the Portland Seamen s Bethel to friends in San Francisco and take subscriptions toward building the Mariners' Home and the president was invited to furnish him with such credentials as in his judgment will aid Chaplain Stubbs in his endeavors to secure help from friends abroad.

MECHANICS FAIR—ADDITIONAL BUILDINGS.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Mechanics Fair Association, held Tuesday evening it was decided to hold the next annual exhibition from Thursday, October 7th, to Saturday, October 23d, inclusive. An addition of 50 by 200 feet will be built on the north side, which will be used exclusively for the display of machinery. An addition of similar dimensions will be built on the south side. It will contain, at the Second street end, a restaurant 33x50 feet, and at the Third street end a smoking room of like size. The remainder of the addition—50 by 140 feet—will be occupied as the floral department, which will be tastefully laid out in grottos, walks and arbors. The cost of this year s improvement will be about $5000.

GARFIELD CLUB.—Last evening the regular meeting of the Portland Garfield Club was held at Good Templar Hall corner of Third and Alder streets. The attendance was quite large and much interest was manifested. During the evening a number came forward and signed the roll. Several hundred republicans have already signed the roll and accessions are being daily made. On motion of the president of the club, Capt Waters, appointed Mr Anderson, sergeant at-arms for the club. Spirited addresses were made by Judge L B Stearns and others. These meetings are constantly increasing in attendance and interest.

BETHEL REPORT.—We have received from Chaplain Stubbs a report of the Seamen's Friend Society, covering 31 months and ending July 1, 1880. It contains the constitution, by-laws and articles of incorporation of the Portland Seamen's Friend Society, also many interesting letters from our leading citizens and friends from abroad, and at the close gives valuable directions for the restoration of the drowned. The mechanical execution, by Mr G H Himes, of this city does credit to our city, and will prove a good advertisement wherever the report may be sent. Chaplain Stubbs has performed his work well.

DEATH OF A CATHOLIC PRIEST.—Rev Louis Lajeunesse, who for the last three years has been chaplain for the Sisters of the Most Holy Names in this city, died yesterday morning after many months' suffering with that insidious disease, consumption. A solemn mass of requiem will be sung for his repose in the cathedral this morning at 10 A M. His funeral will take place to morrow morning at 7 A M, from the convent to the City of Quincy by which the remains will be conveyed to Champoeg, from whence they will be carried to St. Paul for interment.

THE FLIGHT OF THE SWALLOWS.—Already the rush from town to the seaside and other summer resorts has commenced. Yesterday a large party went up the valley to put a fortnight at one of the medical springs, and to-morrow a large party will go down to Ilwaco, having arranged with the O R & N Co to make the through trip with the Emma Hayward. Families and small parties are going out each day and the usual summer social desolation will soon be upon the city.

BANDMANN IN GERMAN DRAMA.—Next Sunday evening our German population will have the pleasure of hearing Bandmann in Schiller's great tragedy of "The Robbers," at New Market Theater. "The Robbers" is one of Bandmann's greatest characters and the play will be the grandest ever given in the German language in this city. Bandmann will be supported by Mr. G Franz and the most talented members of the Turn Verein.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS.—Tuesday evening, July 6th, Grand Master Abell installed the following officers of Hope Lodge No 1 A O U W. C R. Hoffman P M W. Jule A. Knapp M W. T W Robinson, G F, A. Y Hamilton O, Henry Brown, Recorder, C P Yates, Financier, Al Zieber Receiver S. A. Moreland G. P H Shulderman I W J N. James, O W.

"SALMON STOMACHS."—A little girl who don't live more than a thousand miles from Portland was sent yesterday to a grocer s with instructions from her mother to buy a specified amount of salmon bellies. While en route she was impressed with the coarseness of the term, and so displayed her maiden y delicacy by calling for a dollar s worth of salmon stomachs.

PROSPECTIVE PICNICS.—The Portland Hibernian Benevolent Society propose giving a picnic about the middle of August. The time and place has not been decided upon yet. The Scandinavian Society of Portland propose to give a picnic on Sunday, Aug. 1st.

WAIVED EXAMINATION.—Harry J Lynch who shot Thomas Watts Tuesday afternoon in East Portland waived examination before Justice Davis yesterday and was committed to await the action of the grand jury which meets to-day.

Those now up Must Come Down Within Three Months

Following is the full text of the ordinance passed at the meeting of the city council last night. It will be read with interest, and very probably amid many big big D s by nearly every merchant saloon keeper and restaurateur in Portland. SEC 5. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict with this ordinance are hereby repealed.

ARRESTED FOR TRESPASS

Notwithstanding the demand made by the city attorney Mr Moreland and Mayor Thompson that the Oregonian Railway Co should have the force of men who have been engaged for more than a week past in grading on the public levee discontinue operations, work was resumed yesterday morning.

In the afternoon about 2 o'clock, a complaint was filed in the office of the chief of police by Mr William Braden superintendent of streets charging certain men (the force employed on the levee) with the offense of trespassing on the public levee.

A warrant of arrest was issued at once and placed in the hands of Detective Hudson who accompanied by officers Luther and Coakley proceeded to the levee. The warrant was served and the following persons were arrested: J H Pomeroy Jake Pullman William Woelfling William Wallman William Jones J W Murry Jr Barnard Haggerty.

These parties were all escorted to the city jail and incarcerated. Subsequently J H Pomeroy was realesed on bail but the other six persons remain in custody.

Chief Lappeus was served last evening with a writ of habeas corpus requesting him to bring Pomeroy before Judge Raleigh Stott of the state circuit court and show cause if any why he should be held in custody. The writ was made returnable at 9 o'clock this morning. The matter is now to be tested and what action will be taken by the court remains to be seen.

COMMON COUNCIL.

[REGULAR MEETING JULY , 1880]

A regular meeting of the common council was held last night his honor the mayor all members except Kellogg city auditor and city attorney being present.

PETITIONS

From L J Jeffery for right of way for construction of a narrow gauge railroad from the Willamette river to the west boundary line of the city along G street to be operated and run by a steam locomotive and to be used for furnishing material for macadamizing and hl ing streets in the northern part of the city the road to be constructed under such restrictions as may be deemed referred to the committee on streets and public property.

From C G Hummel and others for the grading of Seventh street from College to Grant streets referred to committee on streets and public property.

From Abe Tichnor and others to D street from North Nineteenth to boundary referred as above.

THE LEVEE QUESTION

The committee on landings and wharves made the following report

To the Hon the Mayor and Common Council of the City of Portland—GENTLEMEN: Your committee to whom was referred the communication of Wm Reid president Oregon Railway Company Limited accompanied by an ordinance would report

That, in obedience to the request contained in said letter we held a meeting and requested the attendance of Mr Reid who appeared together with Mr E G Hughes attorney of said company before the committee.

The ordinance which accompanies the communication provides for a perpetual grant to the corporation without compensation of this valuable property which we deem worth more than $ 0 000. Mr Reid and his attorney said that their company had a legal right to take this property without compensation and that they did not propose to pay anything therefor.

This being their view of their rights in the premises and your committee believing that their company cannot appropriate this land and especially without paying therefor of course no agreement can be arrived at.

Inasmuch as Mr Reid had in a published letter to the city attorney stated in reference to this matter "We have no intentions whatever (nevertheless what you say) of keeping possession of the levee property without paying for it, we distinctly asked if they intended to pay for it when they stated that they did not think their company was under any legal obligations to pay for this property and they would not pay anything therefor.

This proposition of law we cannot assent to. It is too alarming far-reaching and dangerous to be tolerated until every legal defense shall be made. If this property can thus be taken then public property has no protection whatever. As the ordinance has not been introduced no action is necessary.

Respectfully submitted

RICHARD GERDES
E H STOLTE
Committee on Landings and Wharves

The ordinances to lease the public levee to Jos Smith, to lease it to the highest bidder and to sell it to the highest bidder were each laid on the table.

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 8, 1880.

AN ASPIRATION.

God! what a pitiful mockery
Seems this poor human speech,
To paint the marvellous majesty
Which my life designs to teach.

God! how much less than very death
Is this outspoken tongue,
To grasp the glorious hymn of faith
Which my soul and I have sung.

Oh but for living lips of fire
To utter out my heart,
And flash the tones from my spirit lyre
In the voice with which they start!

Oh but for language that should scorch
The innermost heart of hell,
And gleam and glare like a flaming torch
Through the deeps where devils dwell.

Oh for an utterance that should sweep
Like the red-hot-lipped simoom,
And wither the damning things that keep
This beautiful world in gloom!

Oh for a voice whose tone should fall
Like the touch of a mother's prayer
On the sick and sorrowing souls of all
Who pine for a holier air!

Oh, if my passionate scorn of wrong,
My prodigal love of right,
And the beautiful hopes that thrill and throng
My soul like the stars of night—

Oh, if but these could pass my lips
In the might with which they rise,
How I'd tear and trample the black eclipse
That shroudeth my brothers' eyes!

O Christ! for a boundless pentecost
To rest on my heaving soul,
And give it speech of the Ho'y Ghost
Instead of this stammering dole.

Then, Jesus! the lofty hymn sublime
I'd fling on life's panting sea
Should ring on the farthest shore of time,
And grapple eternity.

NEW YORK FREIGHTS AND MARKETS.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

NEW YORK, July 6.—The dullness which has prevailed in the clipper freight market for the past few months, still continues and there is no sign of improvement. The St. Davids is the most advanced vessel on berth and will finish in a few days. Otherwise there is nothing doing while rates are entirely nominal. Steamer freights also continue dull for reasons heretofore given. The agent has made a very low offer to shippers of rosin, about $5 per ton, but thus far has not succeeded in getting a great deal. The object is to run counter to clipper, but it is only in this one article that any inducement is offered, and this only because it does no interfere with railroad shippers.

The markets in some instances have improved, notably breadstuffs, which are stronger and in most cases higher and in good demand for export.

Wheat—Active at ½@1c advance.
Provisions—Also better demand.
Pork—25c higher.
Lard—5c higher.
Rio Coffee—Moderate demand, steady.
Refined Sugars—Less active, steady.
Teas—Dull.
Hides—Unchanged.
Turpentine—More active, at 35.

Hides—The market cannot be said to show the least sign of improvement.

Bags, machine sewed—The market is strong, but not quotably higher.

Wheat—Extra choice California milling, free sales reported at $1 50½@1 60; good, $1 55; there is a demand for such grades of old crop; California shipping, more demand from buyers, with less disposition to sell on the part of holders.

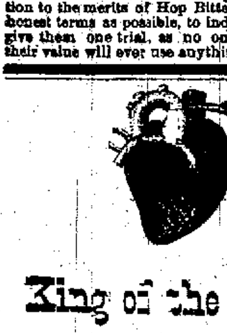
ADVERTISING CHEATS.

It has become so common to write the beginning of an elegant, interesting article and then run it into some advertisement that we avoid all such cheats and simply call attention to the merits of Hop Bitters in as plain honest terms as possible, to induce people to give them one trial, as no one who knows their value will ever use anything else.



King of the Blood

Cures all Scrofulous affections and disorders resulting from impurity of the blood. It is needless to specify all, as the sufferer can usually perceive their cause; but Salt Rheum, Pimples, Ulcers, Tumors, Goitre, Swellings, &c., are the most common, as well as many affections of the Heart, Head, Liver and Stomach.

SCROFULA.

Wonderful Cure of Blindness.

D. RANSOM, SON & CO.: For the benefit of all troubled with Scrofula or Impure Blood in their systems, I hereby recommend King of the Blood. I was recommended to try King of the Blood, which has proved a great blessing to me, as it has completely cured me, and I cheerfully recommend it to all troubled as I have been.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN

The Most Successful Physician on the Pacific Coast,

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

CHRONIC AND DIFFICULT DISEASES

DR. BRENAN WILL GUARANTEE TO CURE any form of disease of the generative organs or private disease.

He has become an expert in the treatment of disease, weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female, including diseases caused by the

FOLLIES OF YOUTH,

Such as SPERMATORRHEA, or SEMINAL WEAKNESS, or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two-thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring, either directly or indirectly, from some derangement of the sexual system, and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.

Everything strictly confidential under all circumstances.

Lost manhood perfectly restored.

Catarrh, Bronchitis, Throat Diseases, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint and all Diseases of the Eye and Ear, Stomach and Bladder, he can cure without fail.

Consultation Free, and a list of printed questions sent to those living at a distance who cannot consult him personally. Enclose postage stamp for list.

THE GENUINE

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine McLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.
